

THE BIGGEST RISK TO CHINA

Asia has already for a long time been the fastest growing economical region in the world. Now you have the possibility to get more information about the present and tomorrow of the economics of this area. Welcome to listen to our professional lecturer - for free!

Time Wednesday 24th February 2016, 12.30 - 14.00

Target group People interested in the economics of Asia and China.

Place Kajaani University of Applied Sciences, Taito 1 -building (Kuntokatu 5).

Lecture will be held in English.

Lecturer

Patric Tay is an energetic and passionate educator with a strong understanding of financial markets. Patrick Tay is currently a senior lecturer with School of Business Management, Nanyang Polytechnic. He teaches Business Finance, Alternative Investment and Hedge Funds and other financial related modules. He has extensive experience in currency and derivatives trading with over twenty years in various financial institutions including Chase JP Morgan and United Overseas Bank. Patrick has a Degree in Engineering and a Degree of Master of Business Administration, MBA.

Lecture is free and it is part of the international week of Kajaani University of Applied Sciences.
Remember to enroll into lecture.

Further information and enrolling

Study secretary Seija Höijer, tel. 040 568 3807, firstname.lastname@aikopa.fi. Please, enroll by 12th February 2016 at website: www.aikopa.fi/koulutukset

