

Invitation to the 11th Doctoral Conferment Ceremony at the University of Oulu

UNIVERSITY OF OULU

The University of Oulu will hold its 11th Doctoral Conferment Ceremony from the 22nd to the 24th of May 2020. The Conferment Ceremony will be arranged jointly by all the Faculties. The ceremonial conferring of degrees on Honorary Doctors and Young Doctors is the most prestigious of academic festivities.

All Young Doctors who have received their Doctoral Degree from the University of Oulu, and who have not been conferred a degree before, may register.

Conferment Ceremony Events and Schedule

The ceremonies will take place on three consecutive days:

Friday 22nd of May 2020 Rehearsals (Saalastinsali, University of Oulu)
 Sword-Whetting (Hotel Lasaretti)

Saturday 23rd of May 2020 Rehearsals (Saalastinsali)
 Conferment Ceremony (Saalastinsali)
 Procession (Center of Oulu, to Oulu Cathedral)
 Ecumenical Service (Oulu Cathedral)
 Conferment Banquet and Ball (Teatria)

Sunday 24th of May 2020 Sailing Trip (Maikkula Mansion)

Please notice that it is also necessary to take part in the rehearsals – especially on Saturday morning.

The celebrations include plenty of music, speeches, and esteemed festivities, but also playfulness and delicious food.

The Young Doctors are entitled to bring one (1) companion to the Conferment Ceremony in the main festive hall, Saalastinsali. The (1) companion is also welcome to attend the Sword-Whetting, the Conferment Banquet and Ball, and the Sailing Trip. The Young Doctors are also allowed to bring two (2) additional guests who can follow the Conferment Ceremony in a separate L1-hall via live stream.

Hat and Sword

Doctors are presented with Doctor's symbols – the hat and the sword. The Doctor's hat is a symbol of liberty, scholarship and freedom of research. The Doctor's sword is a symbol of the scholar's fight for what he or she has found to be good, right and true. Young Doctors need to order the hat and sword by him/herself.
