Workshop: A Deep Dive into U.S. Research Funding

FARIA (Finnish-American Research and Innovation Accelerator) and the University of Helsinki's Research Funding Services warmly invite you to participate in a three-day workshop that is organized in cooperation with NCURA (National Council of University Research Administrators). The workshop will provide valuable insights on how to identify and explore U.S. funding opportunities, budget considerations, legal aspects and award management. In addition, U.S.-Finland collaboration frameworks and U.S. funding in Finland will be discussed. Guest speakers will include research management experts, funding organizations and high-level public administration representatives both from the United States and Europe.

Dates & times: 20.-22.9.2023, from 9:00 – 17:00.

Registration: Registration is open between 1.-30.8.2023 via Lyyti.

Target groups: The workshop is intended for university leadership, research administrators, financial experts, legal counsels, and anyone working closely on U.S. funding in either the pre- or post-award stage. Space permitting, the workshop is also open to PIs in Finland, who are planning on applying for U.S. funding within the next two years.
