

A fluorescence microscopy image of a neural structure, likely a spinal cord cross-section. The image shows a central dark region surrounded by a bright green ring, with numerous red-stained cells and fibers scattered throughout the surrounding tissue.

AddHoc Biocenter Oulu seminar by

Dr. Margarita Glazova
(Rus . Acad . Sci .)

"Pre-differentiated embryonic stem cells as a tool to promote spinal cord neuronal regeneration "

Date: 15.10.09

Time: 15-16

Lecture Hall: Medical campus, P117 (the door next to the door of KEKS, ground floor)